March 2nd – 7:00 p.m. – “Intern” – 121 mins – “PG13” – 2015 – Comedy
Starring: Robert De Niro, Ann Hathaway and Rene Russo

A retired 70-year-old widower, Ben (played by Robert De Niro), is bored with retired life. He applies to a be a senior intern at an online fashion retailer and gets the position. The founder of the company is Jules Ostin (Anne Hathaway), a tireless, driven, demanding, dynamic workaholic. Ben is made her intern, but this is a nominal role - she doesn't intend to give him work and it is just window dressing. However, Ben proves to be quite useful and, more than that, a source of support and wisdom.

March 9th – 7:00 p.m. – “The Rookie”- 110 mins – “G” – 2002 – Drama, Family, Sport
Starring: Dennis Quaid, JD Evermore and Rachel Griffiths

Jim Morris is a Texas high school chemistry teacher and coach of the school's baseball team. He's always loved baseball and as a way of motivating his players, he agrees to go to a professional try-out if they win the championship. He once aspired to be a professional baseball player, but an injury brought that to an end. Sure enough, the 39-year-old father of three finds himself at a camp for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and he somehow seems to have regained his pitching arm, easily throwing a 98-mph fastball. Signed to a contract, he toils in the minor leagues while his supportive wife stays home raising their children. He soon finds himself called up to the big club and pitching for Tampa which is in Texas playing the Rangers. Based on a true story.

March 16th – 7:00 p.m. – “Stranger than Fiction” – 2006 – 113 mins – PG13 – Comedy – Drama
Starring: Will Ferrell, Emma Thompson and Dustin Hoffman

Everybody knows that your life is a story. But what if a story was your life? Harold Crick (Will Ferrell) is your average I.R.S. Agent: monotonous, boring, and repetitive. But one day this all changes when Harold begins to hear an author inside of his head narrating his life. The narrator it is extraordinarily accurate, and Harold recognizes the voice as an esteemed author he saw on television. But when the narration reveals that he is going to die, Harold must find the author of the story, and ultimately his life, to convince her to change the ending of the story before it is too late.

March 23rd – 7:00 p.m. - Classic Movie – “Darby O’Gill & the Little People – 1959 – 112 mins
Starring: Albery Sharpe, Sean Connery and Janet Munro

A mixture of Irish Folklore, some spectacular Special Effects and a wonderful cast provides us with an enchanting fantasy for all time. Storyteller/Caretaker Darby O’Gill is desperately seeking the proverbial pot of gold. What stands in his way is a 21-inch Leprechaun named King Brian, a trickster indeed. To obtain the gold Darby must match wits against this foe, no small task indeed. A fun filled adventure of magic, mirth and non-stop shenanigans. AND - Sean Connery gets to SING! Darby spins so many tales that the local residents are skeptical when he says he befriended the King of Leprechauns. An utter delight, plenty of whimsy, dazzling special effects + some truly terrifying moments. From Walt Disney Pictures.

March 30th – 7:00 p.m. – Classic Movie – “The Man Who Never Was” – 1956 – 103 mins - WW2 Espionage
Starring Clifton Webb, Gloria Grahame, Robert Flemying, Josephine Griffin and Stephen Boyd.

A WW2 Spy yarn based on a fascinating true story of Allies planting elaborate red herring to divert attention from the Invasion of Sicily. A daring intelligence operation prior to the 1943 invasion. Lt. Commander Montagu plants letters regarding the British intention to land in Greece on a dead soldier outfitted to look like an English officer with full realization the papers will eventually fall into the hands of the Germans. A cat and mouse game ensues as British Intelligence races to stay one step ahead of the Nazi agent dispatched to verify the dead man’s identity. A riveting tale of wartime heroics. From Twentieth Century Fox Film Studios.
