Wednesday Evening Program - Fred Miller - “With Plenty of Money and You”

Fred Miller will be joining us again on Wednesday, June 4th at 7:00 p.m. in the Auditorium to present a program entitled, “With Plenty of Money and You”. When Popular American Song became big business, it was inevitable the songwriters would have to stay closely in touch with what the song-hungry, song-buying public was feeling and thinking. And what (other than Love in all its incarnations) occupies the human brain more than Money? Nothing changes in human affairs when it comes to the eternal cycle of Good Times switching with Bad Times and back again; and nothing is quite so uplifting, anytime, as the Great American Popular Songs: “Oh we aren't got a barrel of money. Maybe we're ragged and funny; But we'll travel along, Singing a song, Side by Side!” Fred always provides such a wonderful musical program for our residents. Hope to see you there!

Afternoon Musical – “When Frank Met Carlitos” - Friday, June 6th at 2:00 p.m. in the Auditorium

Starring: Oscar Lajad, Pablo Turturiello & Antonella Misenti

An anecdote that has been going around the internet for several years tells of an alleged meeting between Carlos Gardel and Frank Sinatra. According to the story, in 1934 Gardel was performing on NBC in New York when he was introduced to a young admirer who was eager to meet the “great Baritone from Buenos Aires”. As it turns out, he was none other than 19-year-old Frank Sinatra. Nobody is certain about what happened at that meeting (nor is anybody sure that it actually happened), but it served as a starting point for the development of a very attractive idea: the story of the night in which Gardel and Sinatra ended up locked in a dressing room together. The two began a friendship that, according to the rumors, would last forever. This musical is 73 minutes long.
